

Figure: Nationwide contribution to the ABCD exenatide and liraglutide national audit – the number of patients submitted by each centre is proportional to the size of the circle. From the presentation “ABCD Nationwide Exenatide and Liraglutide Audits” by Dr Bob Ryder and Professor Stephen Gough on behalf of the ABCD nationwide exenatide and liraglutide audit contributors. Scientific Update Satellite Meeting - IDF Dubai 6 December 2011. See: http://www.diabetologists-abcd.org.uk/GLP1\_Audits/IDF\_Dubai2011\_SUM.pdf
 The liraglutide data is from 2011 when there were 77 centres and 4129 patients. As of January 2014 there were 117 centres and 6238 patients in the on-going ABCD nationwide liraglutide audit.

Nationwide contribution to the ABCD exenatide and liraglutide national audit – the number of patients submitted by each centre is proportional to the size of the circle. From the presentation “ABCD Nationwide Exenatide and Liraglutide Audits” by Dr Bob Ryder and Professor Stephen Gough on behalf of the ABCD nationwide exenatide and liraglutide audit contributors.

Scientific Update Satellite Meeting - IDF Dubai 6 December 2011. See:

http://www.diabetologists-abcd.org.uk/GLP1\_Audits/IDF\_Dubai2011\_SUM.pdf

The liraglutide data is from 2011 when there were 77 centres and 4129 patients. As of January 2014 there were 117 centres and 6238 patients in the ongoing liraglutide nationwide audit.